Security Council
Sixty-second year

Letter dated 21 June 2007 from the Permanent Representative of the Islamic Republic of Iran to the United Nations addressed to the Secretary-General

Upon instructions from my Government, I have the honour to transmit herewith a copy of the note verbale dated 9 June 2007 from the Ministry of Foreign Affairs of the Islamic Republic of Iran addressed to the Embassy of Switzerland (Interest Section of the United States of America) in Tehran (see annex) on categorical rejection of the baseless allegations made by Nicholas Burns, the United States Under Secretary of State for Political Affairs, against the Islamic Republic of Iran.

I should be grateful if you could circulate the present letter and its annex as a document of the General Assembly, under agenda item 80, and of the Security Council.

(Signed) M. Javad Zarif

Annex to the letter dated 21 June 2007 from the Permanent Representative of the Islamic Republic of Iran to the United Nations addressed to the Secretary-General

The Ministry of Foreign Affairs of the Islamic Republic of Iran presents its compliments to the Embassy of Switzerland (Interest Section of the United States of America) and wishes to state the following:

The United States Under Secretary of State for Political Affairs, Nicholas Burns, has regrettably accused Iran of being implicated in the explosions of the United States marine barrack in Lebanon (1983) and Khobar towers in Saudi Arabia (1996), in an article published in the Boston Review, May/June 2007.

Also, in his remarks at the Holocaust Museum's Day of Remembrance Luncheon, held in Washington on 19 April 2007, he asserted the following: "In Argentina, in Buenos Aires, in 1992, we believe the Iranian Government bombed the Israeli Embassy. And then two years later, we believe that the Iranian Government, the Iranian Revolutionary Guard Corps command bombed the Argentine Jewish community center and killed an extraordinary number of people, hundreds of people, in the heart of Buenos Aires."

The Government of the Islamic Republic of Iran, while rejecting and strongly condemning such sheer lies and irresponsible and unfounded allegations aimed at tarnishing the image of the Islamic Republic of Iran, as well as at undermining its foreign policy and national security, especially its bilateral relations with Argentina, reserves its legal rights under international and established domestic laws to counter these acts, which run contrary to the Charter of the United Nations and other rules and principles of international law. It emphatically expects the Government of the United States to avoid constant and continuous violation of the sovereign rights of the Government of the Islamic Republic of Iran, as well as its national security and international interests and to take urgent measures to redress the past violations.

3. For its further consideration of the items, the Committee had before it the report of the Secretary-General on a comprehensive proposal on appropriate incentives to retain staff of the International Criminal Tribunal for Rwanda and the International Tribunal for the Former Yugoslavia (A/61/824) and the related report of the Advisory Committee on Administrative and Budgetary Questions (A/61/923).

III. Recommendation of the Fifth Committee

6. The Fifth Committee recommends to the General Assembly the adoption of the following draft resolution:

Comprehensive proposal on appropriate incentives to retain staff of the International Criminal Tribunal for Rwanda and the International Tribunal for the Former Yugoslavia

The General Assembly,

Having considered the report of the Secretary-General[1] and the related report of the Advisory Committee on Administrative and Budgetary Questions,[2]

Recalling its resolutions 61/241 and 61/242 of 22 December 2006 on the financing of the International Criminal Tribunal for the Prosecution of Persons Responsible for Genocide and Other Serious Violations of International Humanitarian Law Committed in the Territory of Rwanda and Rwandan Citizens Responsible for Genocide and Other Such Violations Committed in the Territory of Neighbouring States between 1 January and 31 December 1994 and the International Tribunal for the Prosecution of Persons Responsible for Serious Violations of International Humanitarian Law Committed in the Territory of the Former Yugoslavia since 1991,

Recalling also paragraph 1, section E, of its resolution 61/239 of 22 December 2006,

1. Takes note of the report of the Secretary-General;[1]

2. Underlines the importance it attaches to the Tribunals being able to function effectively throughout their completion phases;

3. Emphasizes the specialized nature of the Tribunals;

4. Acknowledges that the retention of personnel in key positions of the Tribunals is critical to enable the Tribunals to fulfil the completion strategy;

5. Notes with concern that there may be difficulties in retaining and recruiting key staff as the Tribunals complete their mandates, as noted in the reports of the Secretary-General and the Advisory Committee on Administrative and Budgetary Questions;[2]

6. Notes that a retention incentive could address possible difficulties in retaining personnel in key positions, while other instruments should be explored;

7. Also notes that any measures aimed at retaining staff should clearly outline the difficulties experienced by the Tribunals in retaining personnel in key positions during the completion phase of the Tribunals;

8. Recognizes that the payment of a retention incentive is not provided for by the United Nations common system and could have implications for the common system, and therefore requests the International Civil Service Commission to advise

it on the proposal of the Secretary-General contained in his report no later than the main part of its sixty-second session;

9. Requests the Secretary-General, without prejudging any decision on the implementation of measures for staff retention, to submit a report to it no later than the first part of its resumed sixty-second session, which would include cost implications and, inter alia:

(a) Updated human resources data, including on current and projected staff turnover, also taking into account the expiration of contracts, the number of staff departures and the identification of key positions where the problem of retention could arise;

(b) Drawdown plans for each Tribunal, which would show clearly the anticipated post reductions for each year until the Tribunals complete their mandates;

(c) Non-monetary incentives and measures, including those that would take advantage of the foreseen downsizing of staff at the Tribunals, such as outplacement, enhanced system-wide coordination in the areas of career development, mobility and secondment, that are within the United Nations common system and staff regulations and rules;

(d) Clear justification for the possible payment of a retention incentive;

(e) All legal aspects related to the implementation of a staff retention scheme;

(f) Alternative approaches to the calculation of the amount of a retention incentive, including focusing the proposals on core positions, required years of service, possible cap mechanisms and the timing of their payment, as well as the conditions attached to such retention schemes.
